

Montreal, QC H2X, Canada

866 984 3822

www.fta.ca

The festival, one of the world's best in terms of both theatre and contemporary dance, as always stakes on highly original works and coAnstitutes one of the highlights of performance arts in Montréal.

Six works have been announced on the preliminary program list – three in dance and three in theatre.

Tickets for these shows are already on sale. The rest of the programming will be made public on Tuesday, March 21, as well as the festival's parallel activities, better known as Les terrains de jeu du FTA (the FTA's playgrounds).

On this date, the rest of the tickets, as well as tickets bundles for 4, 8 or 12 shows will be made available for sale.

Festival TransAmériques

\May 23
\June 6

\Quartier général du fta